

Student Consent Form

Purpose of this consent form

Medha is committed to upholding the data and privacy rights of its students. This consent form intends to provide you with an understanding of how the information you share with Medha can be used and is protected as well as any potential risks associated with sharing your data.

Data usage and protection policy

- Data usage by Medha:
 - Medha and educational institution authorities that we work with can communicate on the contact number shared by you during registration.
 - Medha can use photographs, videos, audio recordings, written quotes, testimonials, feedback, and work samples of/from you for marketing and communication purposes of Medha. We will ensure that your last name is not used for any such communication to protect your identity.
- Data sharing with a third party:
 - Medha may share your data with a third party, such as project partners or donors, for non-commercial purposes that support Medha's mission, e.g., research, project reporting, or networking. We will remove or code any personal information that could identify you before data is shared with external partners to ensure that no one will be able to identify you from the information we share. Data will be shared in aggregated form or anonymized before sharing for research purposes.
 - If your contact number or any identifying information is required to be shared externally, we will take separate consent from you.

Potential risks

- Only Medha's Data and Impact team will have access to your identifying information.
- Data received may exist on backups and server logs beyond your course and surveys.

Any other questions/concerns

If you have any further questions or concerns regarding sharing your information, please email us at data@medha.org.in.

Additional Information

- Your registration is entirely voluntary.
- The contribution fee paid during registration is non-refundable.
